LEGAL NOTICE

If You Were a Green Dot Prepaid Debit Card or Walmart MoneyCard Holder On May 14, 2016, You Could Be Entitled to Money From a Class Action Settlement.

A Settlement has been reached in class action lawsuits against Green Dot Corporation, Green Dot Bank, MasterCard Incorporated, and MasterCard International Incorporated (collectively, "Defendants"). The lawsuits allege that, due to technical issues that arose during a processor conversion, some holders of Green Dot-issued, MasterCard-processed prepaid debit cards experienced a longer-than-anticipated disruption in service for portions of the period of time between May 15, 2016 and May 22, 2016 (the "Service Disruption").

- Why Am I Being Contacted? You may be a member of the "Settlement Class." Members of the Settlement Class are all cardholders, as identified in Green Dot Defendants' business records, who attempted to and were unable to use their Green Dot-issued, MasterCard-processed cards to access or spend their account funds from May 15, 2016 through May 22, 2016 as a result of the Service Disruption.
- What Can I Get Out of the Settlement? If you are eligible and the Court approves the Settlement, you will receive a holiday from the monthly maintenance fee charged on your account for a one-month period. You do not need to file a Claim to receive the Fee Holiday, and it will come in the form of a reimbursement or credit. Additionally, if you had losses as a result of the Service Disruption and file a Claim Form as provided below, you may be eligible for the following:
  - If you have Reasonable Documentation to support your losses, you could receive reimbursement for losses of up to $750.00.
  - If you do not have Reasonable Documentation or do not wish to submit proof of loss, you could receive reimbursement for losses of up to $100.00.

Payments will be reduced by amounts you already received from Defendants, except the Fee Holiday, in connection with the Service Disruption. Payments may be reduced for other reasons provided in the Settlement Agreement.

Defendants have already provided a two-month Fee Holiday to some Green Dot prepaid debit cards and Walmart MoneyCard account holders. Also, certain Settlement Class Members with an active account received a credit to their account in the amount of $50.00. You can learn more about these previously provided benefits, review the Settlement Agreement, and review additional notice information by going to the Settlement Website www.GreenDotServiceDisruption.com.

How Do I Get My Payment? Once the Settlement is approved and effective, the Fee Holiday/reimbursement benefit, as described above, will occur automatically. To receive a separate payment for losses as a result of the Service Disruption, you must complete and submit the Claim Form, meet the requirements, and have your Claim verified. You may use the Claim number provided above to file a Claim.

You may fill out a Claim Form online at www.GreenDotServiceDisruption.com. You can also download the Claim Form from the Settlement Website, call 1-844-319-7640, or write to the Settlement Administrator at the following address to request that a paper copy of the Claim Form be mailed to you: Green Dot MoneyCard Settlement Administrator, P.O. Box 6336, Portland, OR 97208-6336. If you are filing a paper Claim Form, please include the Claim Number on each page of the Claim Form. All Claim Forms must be received online or postmarked no later than 30 (thirty) days after the Settlement's Effective Date. Assuming no appeals are filed, the Claim Deadline will be no earlier than December 2, 2017.

What Are My Rights? You can do nothing, submit a Claim Form, object to the Settlement, or exclude yourself from the Settlement. If you do nothing, submit a Claim Form, or object, you won't be able to take action against any of the Defendants with respect to the claims addressed in the Settlement, and you will be bound by the Settlement's release. Under the terms of the Settlement's release, unless you exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will release any claims, arising under state or federal law, you may have against any of the Defendants, their successors, affiliates, directors or other representatives, in connection with the Service Disruption. Even if you do nothing, you will be bound by the Court's decisions, the Settlement, and its included Release. The full terms of the Release can be viewed in the Settlement Agreement posted at www.GreenDotServiceDisruption.com.

If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you can object to the Settlement if you don't like any part of it or if you disagree with any of its terms. You can give reasons why you think the Court should deny approval by filing an objection. Objections must be sent to the Court (please see Question 18 of the Long Form Notice, posted at www.GreenDotServiceDisruption.com). You may not object to the Settlement if you exclude yourself from the Settlement.

If you want to keep your right to sue Defendants related to the Service Disruption, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement. You can download an exclusion form at www.GreenDotServiceDisruption.com. You must mail your exclusion request to the Settlement Administrator at the following address: Green Dot MoneyCard Settlement, Attn: Exclusion Requests, P.O. Box 6336, Portland, OR 97208-6336.

All Requests for Exclusion and Objections must be received by September 26, 2017.

- When Will the Court Approve the Settlement? The Court will hold a hearing on November 2, 2017 to consider whether to approve the Settlement, a request for attorneys' fees and costs up to $750,000.00, which will be paid by Defendants, and special service payments of $500.00 for each of the Settlement Class Representatives. You or your own lawyer may appear and speak at the hearing at your own expense, but you are not required to attend.
